A Christmas Carol

In the stillness of the midnight,
In the silence of the Star,
In the slumber of the white lambs,
On the hillsides, near and far,
Came the Christ Child to His mother:
To the humble oxen's stall;
He, the Babe of Paradise, sweet:
Lord of Christmas, King of all.

Hush, let not a word be spoken
Of His sacrifice for men,
Stooping from his world of glory,
To be woman-born; a pen
Of sweet straw to be His cradle,
He is ours, just ours, today,
Mark that mortal smile, that shining
Of the halo in the hay!

While the palm trees rustle softly,
While His lullaby the breeze
Croons amid the angels' anthem,
Which the star-lit heaven cleaves,
We will claim Him ours, our treasure,
Christmas Babe, and Babe divine.
Hail, thrice hail, O mystic stranger,
Nestling in Thy straw-filled shrine!

—Helen Chase.
